ENGLISH CRICKET. London, July 6 .- The annual match between Oxford and Cambridge was commenoed at Lord's yesterday. Cambridge made 150 runs in their first innings and Oxford 162. To-day Cambridge completed their second innings for 336, making a grand total of 492. Oxford must thus make 331 runs to win.

July 7 .- The match was won, to-day, by Cambridge, by 179 runs. London, July 9. - The 72nd cricket match between elevens representing Eton and Harrow began to-day at Lord's Grounds. The eleven representing Harrow were all out for 236 runs. At the close of play Eton had scored 145 runs for nine wickets down.

HENLEY REGATTA.

· AN ANTI-BRITISH ALLIANCE. Berlin, July 10 .- The main business of serious importance to be transacted during Bur the Emperor William's visit to the Czar, will be the formulation of a distinct under. U.S. standing between Russia and Germany in regard to a frankly anti-British policy in the Orient, especially in connection with WI'

Japan and China. In the event of possible complications Kon arising from the critical situation in India, Nag the Emperor William will pledge himself Kagor systematically to support Russian interests Guisl in that part of the world. This policy, in Sharp the main, is approved by Prince Hohenlohe, Amor the Imperial Chancellor, and it is hoped Swat will further isolate Great Britain. Russia, Cant on her part, is to promise the weight of Hon her influence in favour of Germany in the Vict. event of annexation plans maturing in Gap Samoa and elsewhere. The Emperor Machines, notwithstanding the natural jealousy Hair of France growing out of this programme, Bolis that an entente with the Franch Republic Man will in most cases be possible also.

It was owing to this outspoken antiBritish programme, the outlines of which were sketched at the meeting between the Emperor William and the Cear at Breslau in 1896, that His Majesty deemed it best to show a great deal of reserve in regard to Queen Victoria's Jubilee, and the rottring acts, and to the level of the set in inches, tentile, stitude of the German Embassy in London during the festival was due to the same

On the occasion of the recent visit of Prince Hohenlohe and Baron Von Buelow to Prince Bismarck, this matter was discussed at some length, and it is claimed that the ex-Chancellor endorsed the pro-
